ON THE ROAD To The Title

Round 22 preview

Canterbury Marrickville v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Canterbury Marrickville had their season finished by the Macarthur Rams last week, although realistically their defeat the previous week by Ryde probably finished them off. The Berries will be missing the suspended Angelo Markopoulos after his sending off against the Rams, while players of the likes of Jim Nikas (overseas) and Matthew Percy (Uniroos squad - see page 17) have not been adequately replaced.

Bonnyrigg must have thought their chance had gone after their defeat by Blacktown a couple of weeks ago, but they have kept going when the Demons have faltered. Put simply a win here and the Minor Premiership is the White Eagles for the second time in two seasons, and whichever team finishes top after a 22 round season fully deserves it. Nice to see Johnny Ghisso score two last week to clinch the points against Ryde - the classy number 10, like so many of his teammates, is a joy to watch at times.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Bonnyrigg to take three points - and the Minor Premiership.

Ryde City v Bankstown City Lions

Ryde face a tough task here, with a number of their players probably looking forward to the final whistle that will give them a well-earned break. A solid team all season, Ryde's problem is all too evident looking at the goalscorers chart - their top scorer, Aydin Cetinay has five goals. Losing two of their better players in Craig Moffit and Scott Ollerenshaw was never going to help, but the Gunners have been safe for some time now, and can keep giving their younger players experience in Super League.

Bankstown have started to show the only thing that has eluded them all season, consistency, and a win here will see Fairfield needing to beat Leichhardt at Lambert Park by a large margin. The Lions should go on and collect the three points and at least fifth spot here, but they have faltered before when they have looked well set and it will be a brave person to bet their house on them.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Bankstown City Lions

Leichhardt Tigers v Fairfield Bulls

Leichhardt's season is over, but they still have a big part to play in the 1999 Super League season. A win here ends Fairfield's top five hopes, unless Bankstown are absolutely slaughtered by Ryde. It has been a disappointing end for a team that has always been competitive, and the signing of Steve Karavatakis and John Buonavoglia seemed to be the spark they needed. Despite that a special word for coach Arno Bertogna, who has been a class act all season, and who has given his team every encouragement in both victory and defeat.

The new-boys in Super League have probably provided some of the high-lights of the season, and also have the leading scorer in Matthew Borg. To do the double over both Macarthur Rams and Blacktown is just incredible, and even more so when in many cases this team is made up of players that other Super League clubs didn't want. The Bulls success means that it will be a huge disappointment for them if they do just miss out and 'only' finish sixth.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Fairfield Bulls

Parramatta Eagles v Blacktown City Demons

Parramatta has moved quietly into fourth spot, and is one of the form teams in the competition. The strength in depth that sees their Under 21's in top and the Under 18's in second has been well utilised by Roberto Viera, as he has brought through a number of promising youngsters - most of whom have delievered. Ballamobou Conde, who scored the winner against the Central Coast last week, is set to become a big star, although he will be tested today in midfield against Blacktown.

Blacktown look to have 'bombed', no pun intended, the Minor Premiership after losing their last two games, and are looking for a win here plus Bonnyrigg slipping up against Canterbury Marrickville. The Demons have undoubted been one of the top two teams all year along with the White Eagles, but it looks like they will have to settle for second - and maybe the chance to repeat last year's Grand Final.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - A draw

Central Coast v Eastern Suburbs

The Coasties sit a point clear of Sutherland and two points clear of Eastern Suburbs at the time of writing, although that will change when those two teams met in their re-arranged round 21 match. The Coasties will probably be hoping for a draw or Sutherland win, then if they can avoid defeat at Pluim Park they will finish eleventh. One thing's for sure - there will be some tension in the game and one hopes that a piece of good skill, rather than fortune or a mistake, settles this one. Eastern Suburbs have it in their own hands, playing the only two teams they can catch away from home. Rookie Coach John Calleja will look for a minimum of four points from the two games, as anything less could see the Wanderers finish bottom. Like the Coasties boss Allan Bourke, Calleja won't have wanted the season to be settled on one game, although of course nothing is ever won or lost on just one game.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Central Coast

Sutherland Sharks v Macarthur Rams

Sutherland should have played their re-arranged match against Eastern Suburbs after the time of writing, and a win there will mean the result against Macarthur will be immaterial. A defeat by the Wanderers though will mean the Sharks will have to get all three points at home against the Rams.

Sutherland have had just five scorers all season, and their second top scorer is Levi Stephen with four - and he left the club some time ago.

The Macarthur Rams have appointed Brian Dene as Super League 1st Grade Coach and Head Coach for the remainder of the 1999 season. Dene has taken over from caretaker coach Martin Bourke, and the former U18 coach has seen his side win the first two games under his command. The Rams looked comfortable in the second half against Canterbury Marrickville last week, and with the right attitude can collect another three points here and secure that third spot on the ladder.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Macarthur Rams

Round 21 review

Super League got off to a wet start when the vital Round 21 match between Eastern Suburbs and the Sutherland Sharks was washed out. At the time of writing no date had been fixed up for the fixture, although it was expected to be played before Super Soccer hits the newsagents shelves.

Canterbury Marrickville 0 Macarthur Rams 2

Mark Fowler was at Henson Park

Macarthur ended the Berries slim hopes of making the top five with a professional performance on a soggy Henson Park pitch.

Goals in either half left new coach Brian Dene a happy man, as the Rams defence was rarely troubled.

Not that the Rams dominated the game, in fact at times it was the home side who looked more comfortable, as neither side was able to create anything with any regularity.

The action started when a superb through ball with the outside of his foot by Michael Brookes set up Eric Williams, but his shot was well blocked by Steve Tolios in the Canterbury Marrickville goal.

Eleven minutes later, Canterbury Marrickville, playing without the suspended duo of Zoran Ilic and Nick Bozevski, came close through the large figure of George Kategiannis, who helped on a Brett Hewit shot with his head, but the ball looped over the cross bar.

Macarthur were also missing an influential player through suspension, Kain Rastell, but came close on 22 minutes when Williams got half clear again but was denied by a good tackle by Michael Raeburn.

The resulting corner was not cleared properly, and David Reid's shot goalwards was blocked by Tolios, who saw the ball late through a crowd of players.

On 26 minutes came the first goal, which left the Canterbury Marrickville players incensed. A free kick which was conceded by Jose Mendes saw the ball end up some 10 metres from where the foul took place, and when Macarthur took the kick quickly play was allowed to continue. The ball went out on the right to Michael Brookes, with the defenders shouting for off-side, but Brookes did everything right before sliding the ball across to Reid, who scored into the empty net from about 8 metres out. Half the Canterbury Marrickville players ran to the referee and half to his assistant on the right touchline, but the goal stood and the Rams were a goal up.

They held on until half time, although the feet of John Crawley were needed to save from Talcevski, the little number 7 hitting a shot on the volley.

The second half ran similar to the first, with Macarthur picking up slightly more of the loose ball without ever dominating. On 71 minutes came the clincher for the Rams, the impressive Shane Knight seeing his volley blocked by a defender, but the ball came back tohim to be drilled home for his first of the season.

From then on it was all Macarthur, as the Berries pushed forward only to leave gaps at the back. Substitute Trevor Whiddett looked lively in his half an hour or so on the park, and with just six minutes to go Angelo Markopoulos was sent off for his second bookable offence.

Macarthur's new coach Brian Dene said he was happy with his teams performance, especially in the second half, and selected Matthew O'Shea, Ben Willard, Martin Bourke and Shane Knight as some of his team's better players.

He admitted it was hard for him coming in so late in the season as coach, but said the players had responded well, and the second half performance had been something that they could really work from.

Parramatta Eagles 1
Central Coast 0

The Parramatta Eagles have notched some big scores at home, but this 1-0 win is just as vital as any of those victories.

The win sees them sitting in fourth place with just a visit of Blacktown to come, and meaning that even a point should just about see the Eagles into the top five.

The Coasties travelled to the Melita Stadium knowing the Eagles had out-classed them at Pluim Park just two weeks earlier, but although they came away with no points the visitors were certainly not out-classed in this very even game.

In the very first minute a mix-up involving the Eagles goalkeeper Jason Holmes and Malcolm Mielak saw Clint Smith nearly capitalise, his chip over Holmes hitting the side-netting.

On 18 minutes a goalmouth scramble in the Eagles penalty area saw Nathan Byrn fire goalwards, only for Holmes to block his effort.

Two minutes later Maurico Islas set up Grant Bard, but Gary Meier saved magnificantly from the striker, as he did just a minute later from Bard's partner, Adam Anderson.

The Coasties had just about edged the first half, although being grateful to Meier, and in the second period it was just as close, with only one goal separating the two teams.

A high ball into the area was punched out by Meier, but the ball fell nicely to Ballamobou Conde, who side-footed home for his first goal for the club.

With fifteen minutes to go Stuart Sontag received his second yellow card of the game, and while the Coasties actually picked up with only ten men they were unable to find a way through for an equaliser.

Parramatta Eagles: Holmes, Utjesenovic, Reveley, Panzarino, M Meilak, Bard, Mittiga, Islas (Boskovski), Kelso, Anderson (Wakim), Conde

Central Coast: Meier, Demery, Drysdale, Preston, Bennett (Kane), Byrn, Norman (Binskin), Maltby, Sontag, Smith, Bourke

Bonnyrigg's JOHNNY GHISSO (right) scored twice against Ryde City.

Fairfield Bulls 4
Blacktown City Demons 3

The game of the day and possibly the season so far was played at the Nineveh Field, where the Fairfield Bulls completed the double over leaders Blacktown.

They are no lover of reputations down Fairfield way, as both the Demons and the Rams will testify, and this was a game that had everything.

The Bulls went a goal down, then 3-1 up courtesy of another Matthew Borg hat-rick, then saw their lead disappear to 3-3, only to snatch it with a goal 18 minutes from time by Mark Hoenselaars. All this and coach Joe Watson somehow remains sane...

The game kicked off at a furious pace, and it was the leaders who took the lead after just 13 minutes. A cross found Jon Angelucci, and he made it number ten for the season from close range. Two minutes later Matthew Borg was brilliantly denied by Fernando Greco in the Blacktown goal, but on 17 minutes there was nothing Greco could do about Chris Giometti's shot, which hit the cross-bar from 25 metres out before bouncing down and out. Despite Fairfield's protests the referee waved play on, saying the ball hadn't crossed the line.

The Bulls did however equalise on 29 minutes, and it was that man Borg who finished off a great through ball by Michael Vrankovic to level the scores.

Ten minutes later it was 2-1, as Borg beat two defenders before being brought down in the penalty area. He picked himself up to beat Greco from the spot, giving his team the lead going into the half time break.

Preliminary Semi Final

2nd v 3rd	Lynwood Park	1st Grade 3:00pm	U21 1:00pm	U18 11:00am

The second half carried on from the first, with both goalkeepers being called upon to make some good saves, especially Dragon Pupovac, a former Blacktown player. On 53 minutes the Bulls looked to have wrapped the game up, when Borg was set up neatly by Hoenselaars for a diving header to make it 3-1.

Blacktown are not a top team for nothing though, and came back into the game with two goals in three minutes.

On 63 minutes Damien Brown continued his goal-scoring run in the second half of the season with another goal, and just two minutes later Damien Smith popped up to make it 3-3 and leave the game in the balance.

With the game there for the taking, Hoenselaars, so often in the shadow of his strike partner, grabbed the winner. 72 minutes had elapsed when the big forward was fouled, but he stepped up to score a goal that those present will never forget.

The Bulls win means they are still alive going into the last game of the season, away at Leichhardt, while if the Demons do finish second as it looks like they will rue the last two weeks of the season.

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, Mandic, Zabetakis, Falzon, Hoenselaars, Borg, Bourke, Giometti, Vrankovic (Driene), Iocca (Batalla), Maric

Blacktown City Demons: Greco, Lowe, Riches (Holst), Foxe (Cleary), Langan, Angelucci, Bennett, Smith, Yates, Brown, Sermanni (Bradley)

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2 Ryde City 1

Bonnyrigg suffered a scare at Wentworth Park, conceding a goal after just 15 minutes to Ryde City. The goal, a penalty by John Koch, meant that at around 3:20pm on Saturday afternoon the White Eagles were a goal down and Blacktown a goal up in their game. How things were to change.

Bonnyrigg's Johnny Ghisso was the star for the White Eagles, equalising Koch's goal after 35 minutes, to leave the teams level at half time. That goal, plus Matthew Borg's two at Nineveh Field, meant the situation at the top had changed dramatically, with Bonnyrigg now in with a real chance.

The expected winner came for the White Eagles, but it took until the 78th minute for it to come. Ghisso again finished off, to make it two for him and two for Bonnyrigg, while just five minutes earlier across the city Fairfield had scored their winner.

Bonnyrigg now travel to Canterbury Marrickville knowing they are 90 minutes away from their second Minor Premiership in two years - and what a superb achievement that will be for all associated with the club.

Bankstown City Demons 2 Leichhardt Tigers 1

Bankstown kept their top five hopes very much alive after their 2-1 win over the Leichhardt Tigers at Jensen Park. They left it late though, Zoki Adioski finishing the season like he started it with a goal in the 88th minute.

The Lions need a win in their last game to seal a to five spot, although it looks they could be doing that merely on goal difference from the Fairfield Bulls.

Sasho Dimovski, who was magnificant against Blacktown last week, opened the scoring after 27 minutes, and although they held that lead until half-time, it was the Tigers who equalised through an own goal on 67 minutes.

The goal came after a Tigers corner, which goalkeeper Zlatko Josevski was only able to bundkle the ball over his own-goal line.

It looed like staying that way, a result which would have suited neither team, until Adioski's late, late strike.

Women's World Cup

Australia crashed out of the Women's World Cup on the weekend, after losing 3-1 to China at the Giants Stadium in the US.

The match saw teenage striker Alicia Ferguson sent off in just the second minute of the Matildas' final Group D game, before she had even touched the ball.

The loss did not affect the Australian's slim hopes of qualifying anyway, as Sweden's 2-0 victory over Ghana in the other Group match later in the day made the result in Australia's game irrelevant.

The Australians finished with just one point in the tournament from their 1-1 draw against Ghana last weekend and will look for a better run down to next year's Olympic tournament. As host, Australia qualifies for the eight team Olympic competition with seven of the eight quarterfinalists from the World Cup making up the rest of the field.

The Matilda's other group game saw them lose 3-1 to Sweden.

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE

Skills for all

Recent performances by the NSW Soccer Federation's 'Coerver Kids' have made people sit up and take notice.

The 'Coerver Kids' are a couple of handfuls of highly talented young people identified at Coerver Skills coaching camps run by the Federation.

In the past month alone, the Coerver Kids have given demonstrations at the Soccer Expo; then before 88,000 people at half-time in the Socceroos V. FIFA All Stars game; and most recently at Westpoint Blacktown with a well-known former Coerver Kid - Harry Kewell.

"We've known Harry since he was just a kid. He was good, he was keen and he worked very hard even at a young age. He was always one of our favourites," said Kerrie Thorne, co-ordinator of the Coerver clinics at the NSW Soccer Federation.

The new manager of the Coerver group, Paul Bentvelzen, added that there are other Harry's in the current Coerver Kids squad.

"Really, most of our kids have the talent to go on if they want to. It's up to them. They've got to want to succeed; want to be like Harry Kewell. I think Harry coming back and meeting them is good, because he tells them just how much hard work is involved."

Bentvelzen is adamant, however, that Coerver coaching clinics are for all young players.

"You don't have to be a budding Kewell or Farina or Arnold. We think we've got a product that helps everyone develop to their potential."

Coerver coaching is named after the former Dutch European championship winning coach, Weil Coerver. In the late 1970s, he became dissatisfied with the lack of individual skill in the game, and the emphasis on defence that was stifling the offence-oriented style of play necessary to score goals.

Up to that point, football instruction had been predominantly team and tactics oriented. Little attention was given to individual skill development because no one knew quite how to teach these skills, and because it was widely assumed that the great players of the game were innately gifted to do things that were far beyond the capabilities of the average player.

Coerver studied film and videotape of the greats - from Pelé to Franz Beckenbauer - to understand exactly what they did that made their moves so magical, dissecting moves that the stars themselves were unaware they were doing. He then set about developing his method for teaching players of all ages and abilities how to replicate these previously 'impossible' moves.

Coerver consolidated this innovative knowledge into the Coerver Coaching Method, which progressed players through the four phases of development.

1. Slow, simple step-by-step repetition of the moves.
2. Repetition of the moves on the run, without opposition.
3. Practice drills at increasing speed, with passive opposition.
4. When confidence is established, full pressure small-side drills and games - usually involving four players against four players - with 100% opposition.

Coerver Coaching exposed players to a wide variety of moves, fakes and changes of direction, and encouraged them to find those that individually worked best.

"That's the great benefit of the Coerver method," continues Bentvelzen.

"Children who are not as naturally talented as some of their peers find this type of coaching a much friendlier way of learning and improving their skills, because it's focussed on individual skills development and measures how much the individual improves.

"When young people are more confident on the ball and know how to let the ball do the work, they will get much more enjoyment out of their soccer," he added.

The New South Wales Soccer Federation is accredited through FIFA and the Oceania Confederation to run Coerver coaching clinics - the only organisation with such accreditation in the Oceania region.

Uniroos

Universiada PALMA 1999

From 3rd to 10th July The Australian Universities Soccer Team, dubbed the UNIROO's, will be competing against the world's best at the XX World University SummerGames, or Universiade, to be held in the Mediterranean city of Palma de Mallorca.

The Summer Universiade is the second largest sporting event in the world, second only to the Olympics and will this year involve tough competition between 6000 athletes from 150 countries. The line up at the Summer Universiade will include 10 compulsory sports and 3 electives chosen by the host nation. This year's sports will include tennis, basketball, athletics, judo, fencing, football (soccer), diving, sailing, waterpolo and gymnastics.

1999 marks the third time lucky for Adam Mark,a Neuroscience Ph.D. student at UNSW and 1st grade goalkeeper for Eastern Suburbs, when it comes to selection for the World Uni Games. He was a member of the Australian Univerisities Soccer Team that placed 8th out of 16 nations at the 1995 Universiade in Fukuoka, Japan and was eager to better that result when selected for the Sicily Universiade in 1997. However, last minute difficulties resulted in the sudden withdrawal of the Soccer Team from the competition. Understandably, this caused huge disappointment for all involved, something Adam says that can only now be overcome with the chance to prove themselves at this year's Universiade. "We've got Uruguay, Morocco, and Spain in our group. I guess having to knock off the hosts in front of 40,000 fanatical Catalans should be interesting".

The Uniroos squad is -

Manager Greg Kelly
Coach Peter Ware
Steven Angelov University of Newcastle
Adam Mark UNSW
Ben Appledorn University of Queensland
Adem Kose Swinburne
John Fusco University of South Australia
Iain Scott University of Melbourne
Mick Johns University of Newcastle
Doug West University of Newcastle
Jamie Harnwell University of Western Australia
Matthew Percy UWS Macarthur
Scott Wells University of Newcastle
Todd Harnwell University of Western Australia
Scott McIlroy University of Newcastle
Andrew Clark University of Sydney
Todd Patch Southern Cross University
Adrian Caniglia VUT
Scott Halpin Murdoch University
Glen Kolpak University of Queensland

Many athletes consider the Universiade a vital part of their preparation for the World Championships, Commonwealth Games and of course the Olympics.

Given that the 2000 Olympics are now less than 500 days away most universities will be sending their Olympic hopefuls and therefore the standard of competition will be incredibly high. The 1999 Australian contingent will include athletics star Patrick Johnson (100m, 200m and 4x100m), and 400m hurdler Rohan Robinson and swimmer Anna Windsor.

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND SEVENTEEN SUMMARY

SAINTS TAKE THE DERBY POINTS WHILE DOLPHINS LEAVE IT LATE TO DEFEAT LIONS AT CROMER PARK

Dulwich Hill fielded probably their most competitive looking line-up at Abruzzi Oval on Saturday and were good value for their 1-1 draw with hosts A C United.

A C had come off a disappointing 4-3 loss at Hurstville and seemed tentative, while Dulwich, with Alex dos Santos and Zlatko Momircevski restored to the side, always looked quite dangerous.

Dulwich newcomer Phil Marzec, once on the books of Sydney Olympic and recently returned from a stint at leading Polish club Amica Wronki, stepped into the central defence and had a huge influence on the game on his debut for his new side.

It was Marzec, who looked even better going forward, who laid on a lovely through ball for Ivo de Jesus in the 21st minute that saw the Canberra Cosmos ace brought down in the area by a defender.

Gabriel Gonzales, also from Canberra, converted the penalty with ease.

In the 35th minute a long ball provided by Osvaldo El Ali was nodded on by Cristian Care for Fabio Screpis to slot home for the equaliser.

Dulwich continued to look the part after the break and when de Jesus played dos Santos into space and the Brazilian got past the last defender it looked like a goal for sure, but keeper Andres Ferriero forced him wide and the shot was angled across the face of the goal.

Ferriero also did well to block another dos Santos shot at close range in the 56th after de Jesus had again been the provider.

Dulwich keeper Peter Trajcevski covered himself in glory by playing only days after surgery on a badly battered nose and after a hesitant start made a number of fine second half saves and showed some superb anticipation that certainly earned his side the points.

His saves from El Ali in the 63rd and 83rd and from Screpis in the last minute proved crucial.

Dulwich could also have wrapped it up near the end but, after beating the offside ploy, Phil Cacciola and Gonzales looking set to score were denied by a fabulous tackle from Ennio Sansone in the 87th and de Jesus also clipped a shot just over the bar a minute from the end.

In heavy, but easily playable conditions at St George Stadium on Sunday, the local Saints saw off a lively challenge from neighbours Hurstville City Minotaurs who had beaten them earlier in the season 4-2.

This time it was looking to be a similar high scoring game after both teams had found the net inside the first 20 minutes.

St George who are making a strong bid to topple the Dolphins and have yet to play their rivals a second time, having already beaten them at home, recorded a solid 3-1 win over their local rivals.

Simon Verrender opened the scoring in the 12th minute when he latched onto a poor clearance from an original shot by Stefan Janic to drive the ball low past Stacey Alogdellis from fully 35 yards.

Not to be outdone, Hurstville's wily campaigner Tom Pontidas caught the St George defence stranded in a group just outside their own penalty area and let fly with a 35 yard shot of his own that found the top left corner of the net in the 19th for an equaliser.

A brilliant piece of work on the right by Leo Carle saw a pass played to Scott Jeffers whose tantalising cross to the far post was met byJanic with a well placed header to give St George a 2-1 lead.

Janic skimmed the bar with a shot in the 34th after Gordon Sutherland had laid on a fine pass and Alex Araujo did something similar in the 41st.

Saints were without injured player-coach Paul Carter, but Mark Brennan, Carle and Verrender were in firm control at the back for the home side and Hurstville were restricted in their scoring opportunities.

Janic added a third from the penalty spot in the 64th minute after Sutherland had been clumsily brought down by Spiro Kladis.

Nick Knithakis drove the ball wide for Hurstville ten minutes from time, but the locals seemed more than capable of hanging on by that stage and finished the game well on top.

Leaders Manly tackled a cash-strapped Illawarra Lions on Sunday under leaden skies.

A very good crowd was on hand, considering a day of steady rain up to the 3pm kick off at Cromer Park and despite a cold, cold wind that gave little cheer to the spectators.

They were nevertheless a vocal group and they must have wondered if the leaders would ever win their game against an under strength Illawarra Lions, with so many shots being saved and the visiting Lions always looking dangerous as well.

Referee Greg Leverton allowed a fairly physical game to flow, with poor light later adding to his potential problems towards the end, but he avoided dishing out the cards and kept firm control on two sides who both had something to prove.

In Dean McCreath the Dolphins had a young goalkeeper who made several crucial saves, including a brilliant triple save and organised his troops well.

Matthew Bastian also stood out in a home side that made an all round team effort, where it was essential to keep going for more than the scheduled 90 minutes to achieve a result.

With the game only a minute old Damian Rosenthal had a venomous shot on goal and the rebound fell back into the path of Dean Harding, but the league's leading scorer's shot was well saved by the keeper. It seemed a promising start by the Dolphins, but it was to prove a frustrating afternoon for the most part.

A fierce shot by Valentin Tasevski from just inside the box and which kept low, was well saved by Dean McCreath in the 8th minute to illustrate that there were two sides competing in this match.

A fierce shot by Valentin Tasevski from just inside the box and which kept low, was well saved by Dean McCreath in the 8th minute to illustrate that there were two sides competing in this match.

Three minutes later veteran Sydney United sweeper and long time Illawarra guest, Velemir Kupresak, had a well directed header saved by the agile McCreath.

In the 25th midfield workhorse Adam Townsend whipped in a cross from the right to find defender Kelvin Foster inside the box where the player had a clear header which hit the cross bar.

Ten minutes later debut player Paul Wearne, on loan from Northern Spirit, saw his curling shot from just inside the box hit the base of the upright - he was clearly unlucky not the score

Jason Kencevski went close for the Lions in the 37th with a shot that skimmed just over the crossbar and was during a period that saw the Illawarra team gain a Lions' share of possession.

In the 43rd minute and with the game already 10 minutes late starting on the gloomiest of afternoons, the game had to be delayed by another couple of minutes after a challenge from Danny Barbalace on the Lions' keeper Robert Raguz saw the keeper down injured and receiving essential on-field treatment.

Two minutes into the second period Wearne came down in a bad challenge and appeared to take a heavy knock on the knee, but carried on and five minutes later made a strong 30 yard run which led to a corner and showed that he was settling well for his new side.

In the 54th minute man-of-the-match Dean McCreath made three quick saves after a very positive looking Illawarra attack.

All three attempts were from no more than 5m out and with a box full of people Dean showed experience beyond his years to save all three tough shots which were well on target and hit with some power, his efforts drawing loud praise from the vocal crowd.

Manly went close to breaking the deadlock in the 73rd and 75th minutes when two headers from Kelvin Foster, both from dead-ball situations, just missed the target

Then in the 78th an Adam Townsend cross into Harding was headed just low to the left of the goal.

Penrith came unstuck against Rockdale at Penrith Rugby Union Park on Sunday where teenager Goce Trposki returned to form to nab both goals for the visitors within the first 20 minutes.

From that point on it was an intense and absorbing final fifteen minutes which had the good sized crowd on the edge of their seats as the ball moved from end to end with the Dolphins enjoying the better share of possession.

In the 89th minute the winner arrived courtesy of Dean Harding.

Matthew Bastian who had a superb second half, played the ball into the crowded area from a deep position, and when Kupresak was unable to control the ball, it fell in the path of Harding who turned smartly and unleashed an unstoppable shot from left of centre and two yards inside the box, with the ball taking a slight deflection off Kupresak and past Raguz.

Home supporters then had to endure 7 minutes of stoppage time in fast fading light before the points could be secured.

Penrith came unstuck against Rockdale at Penrith Rugby Union Park on Sunday where teenager Goce Trposki returned to form to nab both goals for the visitors within the first 20 minutes.

The Panthers almost opened the scoring in the 3rd minute when Mark Afif pushed away a Penrith shot for a corner and then in the 12th Steve Dimovski put a great ball through for Richard Astone who took the ball on only to miss the target narrowly having earlier hit the post from a Steve Sweeney corner.

Trposki and the skilful Spase Najdoski combined in the 14th for Rockdale and when the ball was not cleared the first time Trposki was on hand to drive the ball past Afif at the second attempt for the opening goal.

A big run through the Panthers' defence by Steve Cklamovski saw a shot steered wide by the player, but he was instrumental in setting up the second goal for his side in the 19th when he sent Najdoski in to try a chip over the defence which Trposki then lifted over the head of the stranded keeper.

Rockdale were back on top towards the end after defending well for long periods and chances fell to John Manalopoulos, Peter Apolevski, Bill Petrovski and Trposki, with another from Najdoski well saved by the keeper.

Penrith lost skipper Bob Casserly early in the game, then lost Daniel Lownds and this pair join a long list of injured players now at the Penrith club.

ROUND SIXTEEN SUMMARY

HAJDUK AND FRASER BOTH WIN ON WET WEEKEND, SYDNEY DISTRICT PICK UP A POINT AT COOK PARK

At Mount Pritchard's Cook Park a rather uneventful first half saw few attempts on goal from either side, a 20th minute effort from Carlos Garcia from Sydney District going just over the bar.

Then, in the 38th, Mounties keeper Matt Darwen was forced to palm a shot from Cristian San Juan over the bar.

In the 50th minute District defender Rodrigo was forced to clear the ball hastily from the 6 yard box, after a corner from Ian Stoddart had seen the ball played in by Diego Dominquez to the feet of Greg Baldock.

Five minutes later it was the turn of the Mounties' Troy Green to clear a ball from the line.

In the 70th a corner from Greg Baldock to former Marconi junior Joe Irofino was laid in the path of Lam Quach, whose shot was brilliantly tipped over by Leo Espinoza in the District goal.

In the 84th a passing movement begun by Ian Stoddart saw Greg Baldock and Diego Dominquez combine to set up a shot by Glen Lowe that was again stopped by the keeper.

Mounties had a wave of attacks in the closing stages only for the District keeper to deny them every time.

A point for the bottom placed side was well deserved after this fighting performance against a strong opponent.

Leaders Hajduk Wanderers made the short visit to Fred Caterson Reserve at Castle Hill and on a heavy pitch came away with a 1-0 win against a plucky and youthful home side who had a goal disallowed and fought hard to try and earn at least a point.

In the week leading up to the game Hills' coach Fred Mesiti was troubled by the loss of two key players, Francois Finianos and Ashley Matheson, through suspension.

There were only five regular first graders to start the game, but his problems were exacerbated when he then lost Mark Giovenali at the last minute.

His response was to then promote four under 18's, who had all played earlier in the day, to fill in for the missing seniors. These were Stephen Giacomelli and Robert Jurcevic, both Hills juniors, Omar Makki and Jason Mesiti.

The game began at a lively pace, with Hajduk having most of the possession and wanting to score goals early.

Hills absorbed much of the early pressure and managed to create a couple of chances of their own, firstly by Julian Miller who carried the ball down the right flank then cut in on the inside before delivering a left footed shot which forced the keeper to stretch out fully and palm the ball away for a corner,

Secondly, Jason Mesiti moved forward from his position as sweeper into the midfield and managed a shot from outside the penalty area, which the keeper was again forced to save, though on this occasion the ball rebounded out of his hands, but with a Hills player approaching he was able to regain possession. Hajduk had two major chances forcing Abdul Alamedine to push shots wide of the post in a scoreless first half.

The second half began evenly and with the game flowing nicely, despite the heavy ground, Hills won a free kick outside the penalty area right in front, which was executed to perfection by Vaughan Profilio who found the net, only to see his shot disallowed for offside. Julian Miller then had another top strike in the left hand corner only to be denied by the keeper.

Hajduk also had a number of chances, hitting the cross bar and also shooting wide on other occasions, until they eventually managed to convert a corner kick.

Initially, keeper Abdul Alamedine twice saved close range shots from firstly Trent Worrall and then Damien Brown, but in a scramble in the goalmouth the ball fell to second half substitute Tony Krslovic whoscored the only goal of the game in the 75th.

One last shot from long range by Nick Manefield, which rebounded off the keeper, typified Hills' day as he again recovered to claim the ball at the second attempt

Fraser Park saw off the challenge of Uni of NSW at David Phillips Field with the minimum of fuss, top scorer Matthew Zec missing a penalty but scoring another two to bring his tally to 15 for the season.

Zec assisted in the first of the goals, which came 16 minutes in, by providing the through pass that allowed Ante Zizic to go on and beat the keeper and in a second half flurry of goals Zec scored twice before first Matthew Remondos, putting away a rebound from a Steve Lawrence shot, and then Jeff Suzor wrapped up a 5-0 win by the second placed side who have now scored 50 goals to Hajduk's 48.

On Saturday Mount Druitt celebrated another 1-0 win over crack opposition, holding Hurstville at bay for long periods and then clinching the win with a typical Paul Graham goal at the near post after a smart cross from the right by their substitute who had only just been sent on.

Hurstville's Bob Barisic hit the bar, as did Graham for the home side, while Robert Babaic missed two sitters for the visitors late in the game.

It was a gutsy effort by Mount Druitt who save their best for the big occasions, but seem to give away silly points to the more struggling outfits.

Arncliffe's game against Belmore at Blick Oval and Sydney University's match with Greystanes were both postponed.
